

A Danish-Finnish Workshop on
Viewpoints to Biomedical Practices and Social Change

Sunday, 19 November

Arrival in Århus and lodging at Cab Inn

Monday, 20 November:

Biomedical Practices in Changing Societies

- | | |
|----------------|---|
| 8.30 – 8.45 | Registration for the workshop |
| 8.45 – 9.00 | Opening of workshop |
| 9 - 10 | Anne Mette Fruelund Andersen: Informed Consent in the Framework of Responsibility |
| 10.15 – 11. 15 | Karin Christiansen: The limits of Jürgen Habermas' critique of a liberal eugenics |
| 11.15 – 11.45 | Coffee break |
| 11.45 – 12.45 | Mette Ebbesen: Is Beauchamp & Childress' principle of respect for autonomy concordant with biomedical practice? Results of an empirical study |
| 13 – 14 | Lunch |
| 14.15 – 15.15 | Kees van Kooten Niekerk: Bioethics and Christian belief |

15.30 – 16.30 Janne Nikkinen: Fair Health Care Resource Allocation: Priority to the Worst Off?

16.45 – 17.45 Svend Andersen: Is Respect for Human Dignity an Ethical Principle?

Evening Free time. Further information follows.

Tuesday, 21 November

Ethical Viewpoints to Social Change

8.30 – 9.30 Markku Valtanen: Ideological Conditions of Agency in the Age of Information

9.45 – 10.45 Topi Heikkerö: Towards Ethics of Technology

10.45 – 11.15 Coffee break

11.15 – 12.15 Ville Päivänsalo: Transforming Biomedical Practices: Legitimacy, Fairness, and Trust

12.30 – 13.30 Further ventures, end of workshop and departure

13.30 – 14.30 Lunch

Questions and concerns regarding the workshop are kindly to be addressed to Ulrik Nissen ubn@teo.au.dk or +45 8942 2279